

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2017 with funding from Wellcome Library

<https://archive.org/details/b28779873>

C A T A L O G U E

OF THE

R A R I T I E S

TO BE SEEN AT

DON SALTERO'S COFFEE-HOUSE

IN

C H E L S E A.

To which is added,

A Complete LIST of the DONORS thereof.

THE THIRTY-FIFTH EDITION.

G L A S S C A S E (Number I.)

- in the ch* 1 THE model of ~~our~~ the chapel of the holy ~~Saviour's~~ sepulchre at Jerusalem.
- 2 An horizontal sun-dial
- 3 A Queen Anne's farthing, on a tobacco stopper
- 4 One hundred and four silver spoons contained in a cherry-stone
- 5 A Chinese seal
- 6 A cup and saucer, a drinking cup with a foot, a jar, and a snuff-box, all made of cherry-stones
- 7 A bowl and nine pins in a box, the bigness of a pea
- 8 A piece of a glass bottle, encrusted with white coral
- 9 An English crystal (commonly called Bristol-stone)
- 10 A Scots crystal (commonly called Arran-stones)
- 11 A petrified peach A Lusus Naturæ
- 12 A petrified pear Wynantonyap.
- 13 A curious sprig of white coral
- 14 Petrified cockles
- 15 A curious pebble from Scarborough
- 16 A piece of talc
- 17 A piece of Q. Catherine's skin
- 18 A handkerchief made of the Asbestos rock, which fire can't consume
- 19 The bark of a tree, which when drawn out appears like fine lace
- 20 A nun's pincushion
- 21 A load stone, rough as it comes from the mine

- 22 A load stone, armed fit for use
 23 A small padlock made of red coral, and a key 24 A curious sword set with polished steel, presented by the king of Lilliput to capt. Gulliver
 25 An insect's nest, in cotton
 * 25 Two baskets made of cherry-stones
 26 The Lord's Prayer, wrote in the compass of a silver penny
 27 A small crucifix, carved in box-wood, of extraordinary workmanship
 28 An enamel of king Charles II. in miniature 29 The four Evangelists heads, carved on a cherry-stone
 30 The leg of a Guiney deer
 31 A monkish padlock, much used by the Spaniards
 32 A pair of gloves in a walnut-shell
 33 Skeletons of mice
 .p.12. } 34 A pair of dice, used by the knights templars
 .72. } 35 A pair of dice used in Turkey
 36 A small scull, curiously carved in ivory
 37 A curious bottle and glass turn'd in ivory, with a silver cork-screw 38 Forty four cups, curiously turn'd in wood, one in another
 39 A snuff-box curiously carved in ivory
 40 Saints, &c. carved in beads of cherry-stones
 41 A small camelion
 42 A piece of a saint's bone, in nun's work
 43 An elf's arrow
 44 A piece of the green Asbestos rock
 45 A small crucifix, curiously carved in ivory
 46 A piece of the red Asbestos rock, whereof cloth is made not to be consumed by fire
 47 Several pieces of the holy cross in a glass, framed 48 A salamander
 49 A curious small sea-horse
 50 A piece of rotten wood, not to be consumed by fire
 51 The face of Mr. Jernegan's prize medal, in plaister, gilt 52 A model of Mr. Pitt's great diamond, now wore as a button in the French king's hat, and for which he gave Mr. Pitt one hundred and twenty thousand pounds
 53 The reverse of Oliver Cromwel's medal by Daffier, in plaister, gilt
 54 A painted ribband from Jerusalem, with the pillar to which Our Saviour was tied when scourged, with a motto
 55 The head of the bull fly, exceeding rare
 56 A curious ivory box, in resemblance of the precious box of ointment, with beads used by the monks 57 The stag fly, ~~very curious~~
 58 A curious knife and fork with ivory handles, but ten grains weight
 59 A ditto smaller, with silver handles
 60 A ditto, all silver, but 1-8th part of an inch in length
 61 A most exceeding curious pair of steel scissors, highly finished, and weighs but one grain and a quarter
 62 A very small brass padlock and key, that weighs but 2 grains
 63 The rhinoceros fly
 64 A curious tobacco stopper, with a carpenter's plane in it
 65 The cantharides or Spanish fly used in blister plaister 66

- 66 A curious purse made of a spider's bag
- 67 A small pair of horns, very curious
- 68 A box of relicks from Jerusalem
- 69 Consecrated wafers
- 70 The tarantula, or spider from Tarantum in Italy, the bite whereof occasions madness and death, and is curable only by musick (see British Magazine for April 1760)
- 71 A pack of Chinese cards
- 72 A pack of Spanish cards
- 73 A pack of historical cards
- 74 An ancient thimble dug out of the ruins of Stocks-market, with this motto I WIS IT BETTER
- 75 A curious hour glass and scull standing on cross bones, and a bible curiously carved in box-wood
- 76 Some remains of Indian musick
- 77 A pair of garters from South Carolina
- 78 A tusk of a tyger
- 79 A silver tooth-pick, and ear-picker, worn by Indians

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. II.)

- 1 A Piece of the ~~Peck~~ Marble Rock in Derbyshire
- 2 Brain stones on Corals
- 3 Pieces of the Bristol rock
- 4 Petrified rain
- 5 A piece of crystal with hair in it
- 6 Flint eggs
- 7 Shells encrusted with stone from Scarborough
- 8 A piece of wood petrified
- 9 Curious stones found near Dunsmore in Warwickshire
- 10 Petrified mushrooms
- 11 A wild ass's tooth, from the isle of Malta
- 12 A cinder from the burning mountain Vesuvius
- 13 A snake stone from Malta
- 14 A very small starved frog
- 15 A parrot's egg laid at Chelsea
- 16 A petrified ham, or stone of that shape
- 17 A collection of curious shells and star stones
- 18 A fine operculum or valve of a wile
- 19 Small operculums, commonly called stones that move
- 20 Quills of a porcupine
- 21 Starved lizzard
- 22 Muscular skeleton of a mouse
- 23 Skeleton of a sparrow
- * 23 Exceeding rich silver ore from the royal mine of Guadalcanal, in the province of Estramadura in Spain
- 24 The tusk of a rat
- 25 The spur of a cock
- * 25 Part of the cassada tree
- 26 Ores: viz. 26 Mundick, 27 Antimony, 28 Iron ore, 29 Copper ore, 30 Rich copper ore from Japan, 31 Tin ore, 32 Lead ore, 33 Silver ore
- 34 The rattle-snake root, which cures the bite of that venomous animal
- 35 The plumb pudding stone
- 36 Curious piece of metal found in the ruins of Troy
- 37 A Scots pebble from Arthnr's feat near Edinburgh, cut for the top of a snuff-box

- | | |
|--|---|
| 38 Specimen of tin from the mines in Cornwall | 59 Two mason flies at full growth,
from the West Indies |
| 39 Piece of Mosaic work from Constantinople | 60 The small black viper |
| 40 Sea urchin | 61 A locust |
| 41 Ditto petrified | 62 An oriental snake |
| 42 Curious ball of fish bones found near Plymouth | 63 A wonderful beetle from the East Indies |
| 43 A piece of the caul of an elephant | 64 A mason fly's nest in which she deposits an egg, and then im-prisons a fly, by cementing up the mouth of the cell for her young one to feed on, till it arrives at maturity to provide for itself |
| 44 Bezoar stone from the stomach of a deer | 65 A land armadilla in spirits |
| 45 An acorn from Turkey | 66 The black scorpion |
| 46 A bone of the angel fish | 67 The pope's candle with which house
where he curses the heretics. |
| 47 Hickery nuts | 68 Turkish almanack |
| 48 Pod of the tamarind tree | 69 Letters in the Malabar language |
| 49 Very large tooth of a shark, petrified | 70 Book of philosophy in the Chinese language, called, The Book of Knowledge |
| 50 The triangle fish | 71 Pair of drawers of a Chinese lady |
| 51 A small trumpet fish | 72 A Chinese gazette |
| 52 The tusk of a beaver | 73 Fibres of grass from Muletta coast six feet long, of which cloth is made like our linen |
| 53 A flying fish | |
| 54 The rattles of a rattle snake | |
| 55 A starved swallow | |
| 56 A small alligator and camelion
in spirits | |
| 57 Embryoes of sharks in ditto | |
| 58 A centipede in ditto | |

Curious and interesting

GLASS CASE. (Numb. III.)

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 A Petrified pear | 8 Casada bread from Jamaica, made of the root of a tree |
| 2 The head of a goose petrified | 9 A Chinese compass |
| 3 A box of small curious snail shells | 10 Bones worshipped by the Indians |
| 4 A lock of hair of the Goa goat | 11 Pipe coral or bone |
| 5 A box of the eyes of crabs, and other curious small shells | 12 A dried frog, lizard, and toad |
| 6 A box of red Indian peas, or
Abrus, called by the natives
Shagapocodamoon | 13 The leg of a gorfander |
| 7 A leaf of the pear tree, curiously dissected | 14 The Nautilus, or man of war
shell |
| | 15 An Indian pipe of peace, called by the natives, the Calamet |
| | 16 Fine lace, made in plaister of Paris |

of the Nant 17 A tube, or Sauter.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 17 A sage leaf in plaister of Paris | 24 A worm that eats into the keels |
| 18 Lace made of human hair, very curious | of ships in the West Indies |
| 19 The skeleton of a bat | 25 An alligator's egg |
| 20 A beautiful shell, called the Concha Veneris | 26 A viper, in spirits |
| 21 The horns of a shamway | 27 An embryo of an antelope, in spirits |
| 22 A tobacco stopper made of a Guiney deer's horn | 28 An embryo of a Guiney pig, in ditto |
| 23 A starved frog | 29 A curious lock of a China-man's hair |

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. IV.)

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 A Cocoa nut laid open | chain, cut out of the solid |
| 2 A curious shell, called the Medusa's Head, or Stella Arborefcens. | wood, by a shepherd |
| 3 A very fine head of Guiney corn | 8 The rose from Jericho |
| 4 A curious tobacco stopper and chain, cut out of the solid wood, by a shepherd | 9 China lions |
| 5 An Indian razor | 10 A Chinese rocket |
| 6 The back bone of a rattle-snake | 11 A grape shot |
| 7 A curious knitting sheath and | 12 Two boxes of curious beetles and butterflies |
| | 13 A fan of spun glass |
| | 14 A Chinese gazette |
| | 15 The spawn of oysters |

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. V.)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 A Curious tree of jointed black and white coral | 11 The head of the spatula bird |
| 2 The head of a curlew | 12 The hand of an Egyptian mummy |
| 3 A Chinese candle | 13 A lady's cap, made of the bark of a tree |
| 4 A book of prayers in Queen Elizabeth's time | 14 A Chinese lady's tobacco pipe |
| 5 Effigies of an Egyptian mummy | 15 A Swift's tobacco pipe |
| 6 Chinese money, called cash, 100 of which is equal to 7d $\frac{1}{2}$. English | 16 Chinese crackers for fire works |
| 7 An ivory tobacco stopper in the shape of a horse's leg | 17 A pair of small beads, with a curious inlaid crucifix |
| 8 A silver fish | 18 The king's arms, curiously wrought with a needle |
| 9 A gold fish | 19 The back bone of a viper |
| 10 Grilla Talpa, or Mole Cricket | 20 A Chinese book of philosophy |

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. VI.)

- | | | |
|----|--|--------------------------------------|
| 1 | A Chinese idol | and queen Caroline, neatly |
| 2 | A primer, set forth by | framed and glazed |
| | king Henry VIII. | |
| 3 | A black scorpion | 12 A medal of the duke of Cum- |
| 4 | An insect's nest | berland, turned in wood |
| 5 | A dried apple and a pear | 13 The fruit of the locust tree |
| 6 | A lip, or part of the jaw of a | 14 A Chinese pen |
| | skeate | 15 The head of an Egyptian hen |
| 7 | Barnacles that grow to the | 16 The foot of a Muscovy cat |
| | bottom of ships | 17 A fine Goa stone, used in me- |
| 8 | The skin of a viper | dicine |
| 9 | The flax of the Asbestos rock | 18 A chain made of cherry stones, |
| 10 | A medallion of pope Adrian, | 4 foot long, with baskets at |
| | in plaister of Paris | each end. Simon's |
| 11 | A medal of king George II. | 19 The face of the broad seal of the | | | | commonwealth of England, 1651 |
| | | in plaster at Paris. |

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. VII.)

- | | | |
|---|---------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1 | A Prayer-book, and a sing- | 8 A tusk of an otter |
| | ing psalm-book, as 2 vo- | 9 Writing in the Malabar lan- |
| | lumes bound together, in a | guage, on a leaf of the Papi- |
| | very curious and uncommon | rus, or plant that gave the | | | manner | name of paper now wrote on |
| 2 | The famous Egyptian god | 10 A powder horn of great work- |
| | OSIRIS, on a pillar of Eryp- | manship, curiously carved in |
| | tian marble, being the iden- | ivory |
| | tical deity worshipped by the | 11 A curious snuff box, made of |
| | Egyptians, very ancient and | an elk's hoof |
| | of excellent workmanship | 12 The spawn of a conch |
| 3 | Manna from Canaan | 13 The belt and purse of a Chi- |
| 4 | A Chinese dotchin, and its case | nese mandareen or officer of |
| 5 | A pair of ruffles made of the | state |
| | bark of a tree | 14 An instrument for scratching |
| 6 | A piece of the inward bark of | the Chinese ladies backs |
| | the tree dagilla from Cuba | 15 Mary queen of Scots pin- |
| 7 | Two different locusts, and a | cushion |
| | large moth | 16 Oliver Cromwell's broad seal |

⊕ This Instrument partakes of the scale, and the tezi-horn, and is recommnd to be the most just Balance?

⊕ A scratch Back, an Instrument GLASS-
first brought from China & the we named by its name. —

GLASS-CASE. (Numb. VIII.)

- 1 THE bohea-tea tree
- 2 The bible in short hand
- 3 A book wrote in Malabar language, on the leaves of the plant Papirus or paper-weed, and which first gave the name to the paper now wrote on.
- 4 PRIAPUS, ~~the god of gardens, formerly worshipped by the Egyptians~~
- 5 A snake's egg
- 6 A piece of a nun's skin
- 7 A set of heads made of the bones of St. Anthony of Padua, and consecrated by pope Clement the Seventh
- 8 A butterfly from Portmahon
- 9 A curious horse-shoe fish
- 10 A necklace made of Job's tears
- 11 The reverse of the broad seal of the commonwealth of England, 1651
- 12 The owl moth
- 13 Pods of tamarinds

said to be made.A seed is called from the year

GLASS-CASE. (Numb. IX.)

- 1 A Chinese numeration table
- 2 The small humming bird in its nest, with an egg
- 3 A Chinese mandareen
- 4 The scarf-skin of the fingers of a child, stuffed with cotton
- 5 A very curious jaw of a fish
- 6 A surprizing large moth from Constantinople
- 7 A purse made of a spider from Antigua
- 8 Chinese paint, when wet turns to a beautiful red
- 9 Small nails, 20 whereof make but one inch in length
- 10 A land turtle as it came out of the egg
- 11 The pizzle of a racoon
- 12 The worm that eats the keels of ships
- * 12 A piece of the keel of the Amazon man of war, eat by the ~~abandonment~~ of worm
- 13 A sea turtle as it came out of the egg
- 14 A curious head of a fish
- 15 A cedar cone from ~~the forest of~~ Lebanon
- 16 The basilisk, supposed to kill with his eyes
- 17 The coquon, or antidote nut from Malabar
- 18 The skeleton of a man's finger
- 19 A nun's discipline
- 20 A Chinese knife and chop sticks
- 21 A real in a bottle
- 22 A Chinese pincushion
- 23 A Chinese mandareen's belt and purse

just mentionedMount

GLASS-CASE. (Numb. X.)

- 1 THE papa bird
- 2 The rose-coloured ouzel of Androvandus
- 3 A piece of a man's skin, tann'd
- 4 The fruit of the horn-tree
- 5 A large piece of a child's skin
- 6 The greater humming bird, with a hook bill

7 Bones

+ See No. 17 Art. 2.+ See No. 17 Art. 2.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 7 Bones from a spring called Boney-well near Ludlow | 12 A curious small white crab |
| 8 A pod of the cotton tree | 13 The head of a black pitteral |
| 9 A beetle with one horn from Frederica | 14 A camelion dried |
| 10 The beautiful long tail humming bird | 15 A white sparrow |
| 11 Indian hubble bubble, by which they smoak tobacco thro' water | 16 The head of a ruff |
| | 17 The head of a king's fisher |
| | 18 The skin of a snake, which is shed every year |

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. XI.)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 A Beautiful large conch shell | 10 A Dutch ink-stand, in a most curious case |
| 2 Queen Elizabeth's strawbery dish | 11 The soldier shell |
| 3 A Carolina walnut | 12 A fan from New Spain |
| 4 The head of a beaver | 13 Indian darts, which are blown through trunks |
| 5 The head of a mole | 14 Indian arrows, used in their manner of letting blood. (See Wafer's voyage to the Isthmus of Darien, p. 28) |
| 6 Gypsum, from Knaresborough
in Yorkshire | 15 Two very singular crab's claws |
| 7 The tooth of a buffaloe | 16 A pair of nun's stockings |
| 8 A bunch of Spanish tooth picks, or Gingedium | 17 A Spanish penknife |
| * 8 A Mallay's or Chinese cockspur | 18 A piece of the honey comb |
| 9 A petrified oyster | |

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. XII.)

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 TWO curious butterflies, in a glass frame | in the Isle of Dogs |
| 2 A starved weasel | 8 A stone in the shape of a toad |
| 3 Roman tyles | 9 The bones of a bear's paw |
| 4 A lizzard 20 inches long | 10 An Indian belt of Wampum, a present from one Indian king to another as a pledge of friendship |
| 5 The tree sponge | 11 A fine dolphin |
| 6 Part of a scalp of a woman's head | |
| 7 A frog 15 inches long, found | |

+ Surinam

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. XIII.)

- | | | | |
|---|---|----|--|
| 1 | A King's fisher | 9 | The long nutmeg |
| 2 | A flower-pot filled with curious artificial flowers, all made of shells | 10 | The long pepper |
| 3 | The scarlet manekin from Surinam | 11 | The head of the ocroe, or Madeira asparagus |
| 4 | A medal of the duke of Cumberland, in china porcelain | 12 | The embryo of a whale |
| 5 | Several curious butterflies | 13 | Amber with insects in it |
| 6 | Mary, Q. of Scots watch | 14 | A nutmeg with the mace on it |
| 7 | A china pheasant's egg | 15 | Piece of the royal oak |
| 8 | A very curious small cocoa nut | 16 | A curious bird's nest |
| | | 17 | A curious string of Romish beads |

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. XIV.)

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|--------------------------------------|
| 1 | A N exceeding fine bird of Paradise (see the Description in the British Magazine for May 1760) | 3 | A humming bird defending its nest |
| 2 | A fine golden thrush from Bengal | 4 | A Chinese organ |
| | | 5 | A Chinese permit |
| | | 6 | An Indian purse and seal |

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. XV.)

A most curious and large branch of white coral.

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. XVI.)

Gilt and Silver COINS and MEDALS.

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | I N the center, a very fine medallion of Alphonfus of Arragon; the reverse, a dauntless hunter, gilt | 3 | A ditto, with the conquests of the year 1759 |
| 2 | A medal of his majesty King
George II. the reverse relates the conquests of the year
1758 | 4 | A fine medal of the present
King and Queen of Spain |
| | | 5 | A ditto of the honours of ditto |
| | | 6 | The inauguration medal of K.
William and Q. Mary in 1689, fine silver |

- | | |
|---|--|
| 7 A medal of G. Sancroft, archbishop of Canterbury: Reverse, the seven bishops sent to the Tower, 1688 8 Ditto, of the inauguration or medal of Q. Anne, 1702 9 An East-India rupee, being part of col. Clive's capture from the Nabob 1758 10 A medal of the murder of Sir
Edmund Bury Godfrey 11 A six-penny piece of King James I. 12 A ditto of King Charles I. 13 A medal of Q. Anne, on the peace 1713 14 A Scots mark 15 A Russian groat 16 A very fine medal on finding the silver mines at Hanover, with a perspective view of working them, wherein is observed the workmen's aprons all behind them, 1664 17 A fine silver medal on the peace of Vienna and the Turks 18 A six-stiver piece of Zutland 19 A four-heller piece of ditto 20 A fine half-crown of Charles I. 21 A fine medal of the Emperor | Charles VI. on the peace with the Turks, 1718 22 A square half-crown of Charles
I. struck at Newark, 1645 23 A fine ten-shilling piece of Charles I. struck at Oxford, 1642 Siege 24 A square shilling of Charles I. struck at Newark, 1646 25 A very curious medal on the peace at Passarowitz between the Turks and the Germans 26 A talisman, formerly worn as a charm by the Jews, and — other superstitious heathens, and supposed to defend the possessor from all harm 27 A twenty-penny piece, Scots, of Charles I. 28 A Spanish bitt, value 7 d $\frac{1}{2}$.
English 29 A shilling of King James I. 30 An East-India pagoda 31 A silver gilt medal of Charles I.
and his queen by Rawlins. 32 A silver penny of Q. Elizabeth 33 A fine shilling of Charles I.
struck at York 34 A fine groat of ditto, struck in Wales |
|---|--|

G L A S S - C A S E. (Numb. XVII.)

Sixty-seven Greek, Roman, Chinese, and other foreign coins and medals, in copper and Corinthian brass——In the center of which is a fine medallion of Pope Adrian IV.

On the Wainscot round the Room, beginning on the Piers between the Windows.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 A Solon goose from the north of Scotland 2 A fine large hawk 3 A sugar cane, 8 feet long 4 A curious hydrometer, or weather gage 5 The bill and craw of a pelican 6 A curious skin of a snake, six feet and a half long 7 The claws of a lobster of a surprising largeness 8 A sea fan 9 Alga Marina, or sea wreck 10 A maucauco from the East-Indies — Art. 88. 11 Zabra Mas, or the African wild ass. See Art. 142. 12 The skeleton of a cat 13 A Chinese idol 14 The pizzle of a whale 15 The head and paws of a Greenland bear 16 A sheet of paper made of silk, 12 feet long, 4 feet and a half wide, from China 17 A string of large Romish beads 18 A petrified child 19 A Guinea deer 20 A wooden shoe that was put under the speaker's chair in the reign of K. James II. 21 The King of Widdaw's staff 22 The ear of an elephant 23 Pipes found in Gloucester 24 A print of the fly cap monkey 25 Ditto of a fine lizzard, coloured from the life 26 Ditto of the dead warrant for the beheading of K. Charles the First 27 Ditto of a flying squirrel, coloured from the life | 28 A print of the Brasilian pye, or toucan, coloured from life 29 A sea horse's pizzle, of which cramp rings are made 30 A large otter 31 A surprising horn of a nurus, or buffaloe * 31 The cobbler's awl, plover 32 A fine horned owl 33 A Chinese pheasant 34 Two fine mussel shells, 2 foot long, from Portmahon 35 The rhinoceros's horn 36 The model of a mill with an overshot wheel, which works with sand (as the large ones do by water) most curiously contrived, and made in a bottle: the stopper of the bottle is most wonderfully contrived in being fastened in the inside of the bottle with cross bars and spring bolts, with various things hanging to each end of every bolt, and yet so tight as not to admit of one grain of sand to escape 37 The horns of a West-India stag 38 A Spanish apparatus, or belt to prevent cuckoldom, commonly called a Spanish padlock 39 A Romish bishop's crozier 40 The horn of a sea unicorn, 7 foot and a half long 41 A friar's discipline 42 A Staffordshire almanack 43 A coffin of state for a friar's bones, finely carved all over 44 A joint of the back bone of a whale |
|---|---|

- | | |
|--|--|
| 45 An iron bolt, shot red-hot at fort William by the rebels, 1745 | 67 A pair of Tartar lady's shoes |
| 46 The paws of a Russian bear | 68 The coronation-shoes of King William III. |
| 47 A large star fish | 69 A pair of Tripoly stockings |
| 48 The paws of a seal | 70 A Turkish quiver for arrows |
| 49 A piece of the keel of a ship eat by the worms | 71 A curious brass Cremona violin made of wire |
| 50 The head of a mantee, or sea-cow | 72 A shirt of mail wore by the knights templars No. 1. Art. 34. |
| 51 The lance of Tow-How Sham, king of the Darien Indians, with which he killed six Spaniards, and took a tooth out of each head, and put in his spear as a trophy of victory | 73 A Chinese stocking |
| 52 The skin of a snake, ten feet and a half long, an excellent hydrometer | 74 Queen Elizabeth's stirrup — |
| 53 The head and horns of a reebuck from Scotland | 75 A Chinese boot |
| 54 The grinder of an elephant | 76 The jaws of a shark |
| 55 A cuckow | 77 A scaly coat of mail |
| * 55 The sea-elephant | 78 A pair of Turkish women's shoes |
| 56 The fin of a shark | 79 A pair of Chinese women's shoes |
| 57 A chochin with which the Chinese cut their gold sympum, or Chinese board | 80 Queen Catharine's wedding-shoes I |
| 58 A scull-cap found in the hat of a French officer, when taken at the battle of Dettingen | 81 A pair of Turkish men's shoes |
| 59 A tooth of a whale | 82 A Turkish slipper |
| 60 Bastinadoes from China | 83 A pair of Chinese men's shoes |
| 61 An Indian sword of war, always left in the field of battle by the conqueror | 84 A pair of Spanish lady's shoes |
| 62 An Indian leaf of the tree palmetra, used by the natives as a fan | 85 A pair of brassballs to play at ballon |
| 63 An almanack for a blind man | 86 A curious wooden fan |
| 64 A Moro fan | 87 A curious model of a church |
| 65 The head and horns of an antelope | 88 A print of the maucauco, with some weeds from the gulph of Florida |
| 66 The belt and pouches, shoes and other ornaments of Tow-How-Sham, king of the Darien Indians | 89 The Lord's Prayer, the Creed, the ten Commandments, the prayers for the king and the royal family, and the 21st psalm; all wrote in the bust of king George |
| | 90 A very curious triform picture of king Charles I. and his two sons |
| | 91 The snail drake root |
| | 92 A Turkish bow cut |
| | 93 The root of a tree in the shape of a hog AA |
| | 94 The head of a badge — |
| | 95 The saw of a saw-fish |

+ One of them was brought over and kept by Col. now Lt. Col. and is painted in a Family p. by Mr Gainsborough of Bath.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 96 King Henry the Eighth's coat of mail | 105 A coat made of the bark of a tree |
| 97 A pair of gauntlets | 106 A whip from Archangel |
| 98 Knives of the cannibal Indians | 107 A Mallay's hat |
| 99 An Indian bow and arrows | 108 Queen Elizabeth's chamber-maid's hat |
| 100 Two javelins | 109 The target of Tee-Yee-Neen-Ho-Ga-Row, Indian emperor of the Six Nations |
| 101 A boy's cap made of rats skins | 110 Queen Elizabeth's work-basket |
| 102 Snow shoes | 111 A Chinese hat |
| 103 A Chinese waistcoat, to prevent sweating | |
| 104 A Scots Highlander's target | |

Over the B A R.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 112 A Curious print, that changes, viz. a man into a woman | 130 Two ancient broad arrows of Robin Hood |
| 113 A moving picture of Hudibras and the conjurer | 131 Two small poisoned arrows with bearded points |
| 114 Ditto of the bottle-conjurer | 132 Oliver Cromwell's broad sword |
| 115 Ditto of a bashful widow | 133 A Spanish spadoc |
| 116 Two young tarapins, or land turtles | 134 King James's coronation sword |
| 117 Two fine large ostrich eggs | 135 King William's ditto |
| 118 The shell sun fish | 136 A Scot's durk |
| 119 The egg of an ostrich, curiously carved | 137 Two poisoned daggers of great antiquity |
| 120 The star-fish | 138 A flaming dagger, of curious work, very ancient |
| 121 A buccaneer's staff | 139 A travelling clock, which is thirty-six hours going down. N. B. In common clocks the hand goes round, and the dial keeps its place; but in this the dial goes round, and the hand keeps its direction |
| 122 A very ancient spur | 140 A spur of state from Mexico, taken in the Acapulco ship by admiral Anson |
| 123 King Henry the Eighth's spurs | 141 The flaming sword of William the Conqueror |
| 124 A print of the scarlet manakin from Surinam, coloured from life | 142 A print of the Zabra, or African wild ass, coloured from life See Art. 11. |
| 125 Two Madagascar lances | |
| 126 An Indian bow | |
| 127 A Turkish pistol | |
| 128 A pistol with four barrels, taken from the French at the siege of Namur | |
| 129 Four Indian arrows, extraordinarily bearded | |

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| 143 A starved cat found between the walls of Westminster-abbey | turtle |
| 144 Starved rats | 146 An antique chisel |
| 145 A fine large tarapin, or land- | 147 A cocoa nut and cushaw apple |

C E I L I N G.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 A Starved Champansee in | 31 The jaws of a skeate |
| 2 An Escumax canoe | 32 The shell of a sea-turtle |
| 3 The trumpet-fish, gives notice of his frightful approach | 33 The head of a large turtle |
| 4 The fish, is pursued with | 34 The cocoa-tree pod with nuts in it |
| adilla | 35 The tube plant |
| g fish | 36 Black coral |
| 1 | 37 A fine large alligator from Egypt |
| 8 A young mark | 38 The mermaid fish |
| 9 The cockold-fish | 39 The scythe-fish |
| 10 The sea-parrot fish | 40 A land armadilla Art. 5. |
| 11 A John Dory fish | 41 The grand polipus, 15 inches long, and which is endowed with the most surprising wonders of nature, viz. It is called an animal, vegetable, or water-plant, with all the appearance of life, and (like the star-fish) is not to be destroyed unless by fire. If cut across, each separate piece acquires a new head and a new tail; if split lengthways, each heals up, and becomes two separate and complete polipi; if cut in many pieces, and in any direction, and turned inside out (as a glove) every single piece, in a very short space of time, becomes a distinct live polypus, and will move and feed itself. |
| 12 The old wife fish | 42 The jaws of a wild boar, that was starved to death by his two tusks growing inwards, |
| 13 The lump-fish | |
| 14 The cat-fish | |
| 15 The sea-porcupine | |
| 16 The scaly lizard | |
| 17 A dolphin | |
| 18 A gold fish | |
| 19 The green fish | |
| 20 The remora, or sucking-fish | |
| 21 Balls of hair taken out of the maws of oxen | |
| 22 A calabash | |
| 23 A model of the ribs of a man of war's long boat | |
| 24 A large Congar eel | |
| 25 A rattle-snake | |
| 26 The head of a pike | |
| 27 The sword and jaws of a swordfish | |
| 28 The gallow wasp | |
| 29 A dog-fish | |
| 30 The jaws of a jack with about 1000 teeth | |

which

the

- | | |
|---|--|
| and depriving him of devouring his prey | 59 The head and legs of a flamingo |
| 43 A large snake, seventeen feet long, taken in a pigeon-house at Sumatra: it had in its belly fifteen fowls and five pigeons | 60 The head of a toucan |
| 44 A pine-apple dried | 61 The claw of an eagle |
| 45 A sea-turtle | 62 The tropic bird |
| 46 A guoana | 63 The albetros, or swan, from the Cape of Good Hope |
| 47 The horse-shoe fish | 64 A large sea-turtle |
| 48 The tail of an elephant | 65 A fine large cocoa nut in its bark |
| 49 A large Indian batt | 66 The head and legs of the crown bird |
| 50 A large sword-fish | 67 The head of the albetros |
| 51 An Indian prince's crown | 68 The sun-fish |
| 52 The plumed calamet, presented by the Indian kings as a pledge of peace | 69 A beaver |
| 53 The bill of the rhinoceros bird | 70 The mango bird's nest |
| 54 The toad-fish | 71 The leg of an ostrich |
| 55 A Highlander's snuff-box | 72 A young alligator |
| 56 A land porcupine | 73 A gargulet, with which the Indians cool their water |
| 57 The head of a porpus | 74 A model of a Cherokee's canoe |
| 58 A bottle made of a cocoa nut | 75 The King of Morocco's tobacco pipe |
| | 76 A large seal-fish |

In the C L O S E T.

- | | |
|---|--|
| r A Print of the four Indian kings, who were brought by gen. Oglethorp, and presented to his Majesty, viz. I. Tee - Yee - Neen - Ho - Ga - Row, emperor of the Six Nations II. Sa - Ga - Rean - Qua - Rah - Tow, king of the Maquas III. Oh - Nee - Yeah - Tow - No - Riow, king of Ganajoh - Hore | IV. E-Taw-Oh-Kaom, king of the River Nation 2. Lot and his family coming out of Sodom, with his wife turned into a pillar of salt, in a picture all made of beads 3 A print of the famous Corelli 5 A print of the urus, or wild bull, from Germany 6 A plan and elevation of the fire-works for the peace, 1748 |
|---|--|

- 7 A most curious grotto and rock, with a fortification, the governor's house, hermit's cell, and shepherd's cave, all made of shell-work
- 8 A representation of his Majesty's ship the Ipswich in distress, with the plan of the machine by which she was steered 740 leagues after she had lost her rudder
- 9 A fineered fool
- 10 Medals of the kings of England—from William the Conqueror, in plaster of Paris, from Daffier's
- 11 An amulet, or charm, given by the fetiches or priests in Guiney to the credulous natives: each division contains some Arabick characters. These poor deluded wretches believe, that whilst they are suspended round their necks, or otherways carried about them, they will be safe from thunder, slavery, or any other casualties which the priests chuse to say they will be preserved from.

